Jay L. Hunter

Dean of Boys

When a fellow is in trouble, he needs a friend; and at East High, the best friend he has is Dean of Boys, Jay L. Hunter. With a ready smile and a guiding personality, Dean Hunter makes even the most difficult problem seem trivial—just a bump in a schoolboy's life. Mr. Hunter also serves as adviser to the Boys' Club and director of the Annual Boys' Club Minstrel.

Veronica G. O'Neil

Dean of Girls

It is as a friend and adviser, as well as in her official capacity of Dean of Girls and Student Council Adviser, that Miss Veronica O'Neil has won the esteem and friendship of all who have come in contact with her. To say more would be repetition; to say less would be an injustice.

Student Council

Remember these? The Master Singers were presented in a convo made possible by the Student Council. They sang many novel selections consisting of solos, duets, and quartets. We remember not only their excellent voices, but also the humorous arrangement of their selections.

One of the most successful activities of Student Council this year was the Defense Stamp drive. The sale of stamps and bonds ran into the thousands of dollars.

Another famous artist brought to East High by Student Council was Mr. Zimmerman. Remember his thrilling experiences down on the bottom of the ocean?

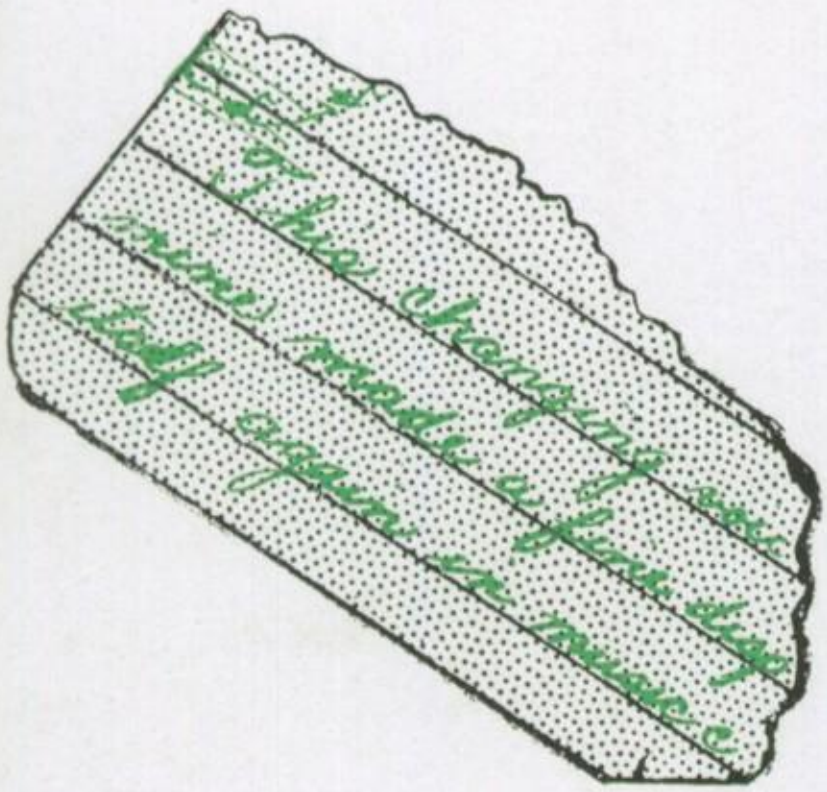
A refugee from France is Alice Langelier, whom the students of East High had the privilege of hearing. This and programs of movies and music were sponsored by the Language Department.



Evidently these two chaps are discussing plans for the Christmas program, which the Music and Drama Departments jointly present to the student body and the Parent Teacher Association.

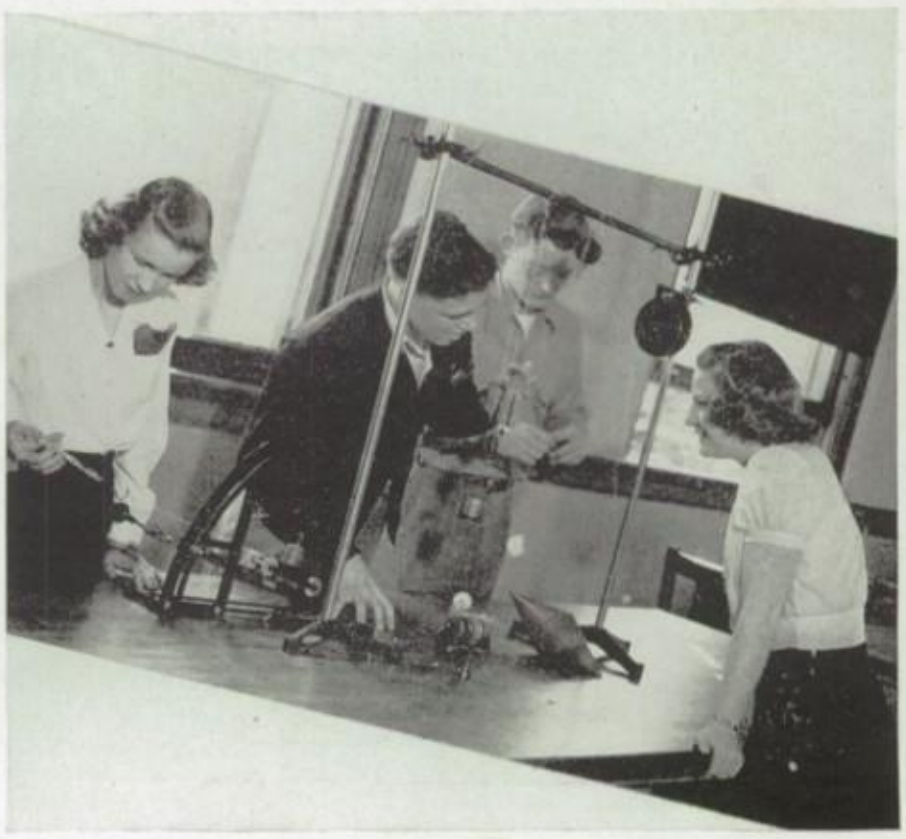
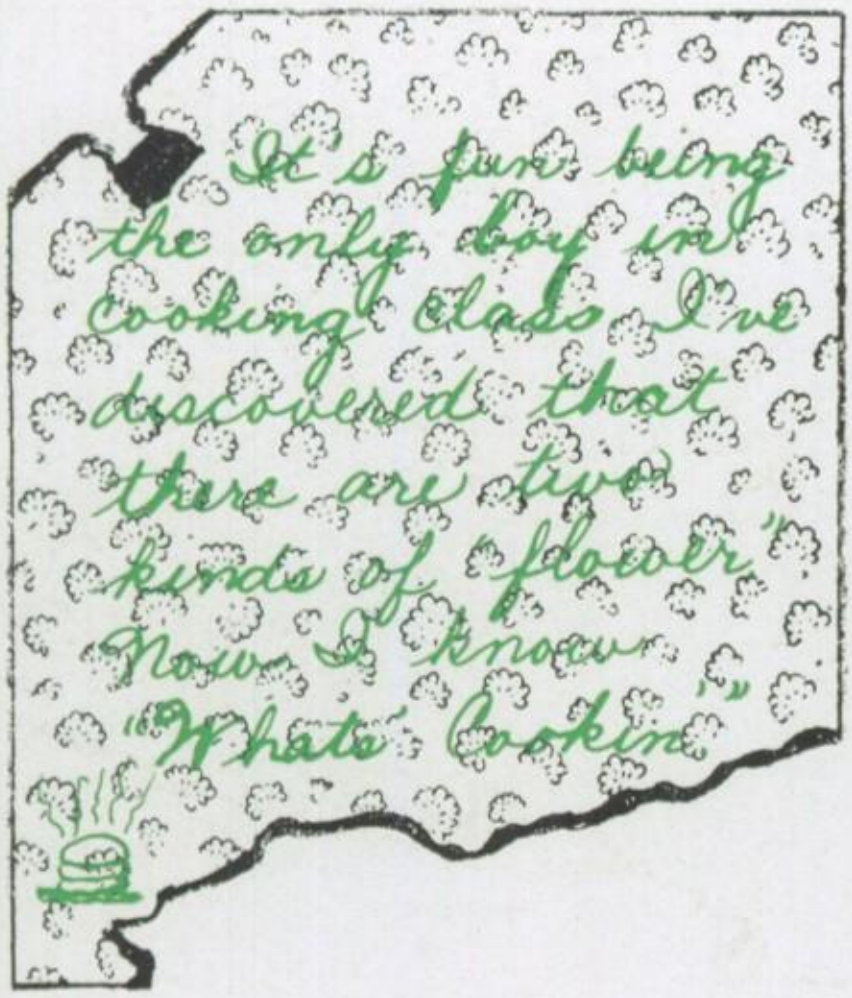
Can you identify the objects in this picture. Students of the Science Department are endeavoring to set up a few pulley arrangements. Object? To show six kinds of simple machines.





Mmm! Looks good, and we'll bet it tastes good, too! The girls in cooking seem to enjoy preparing tempting dishes, planning menus and attractive tables, and eating their pudding. Better ask them how they like doing dishes!

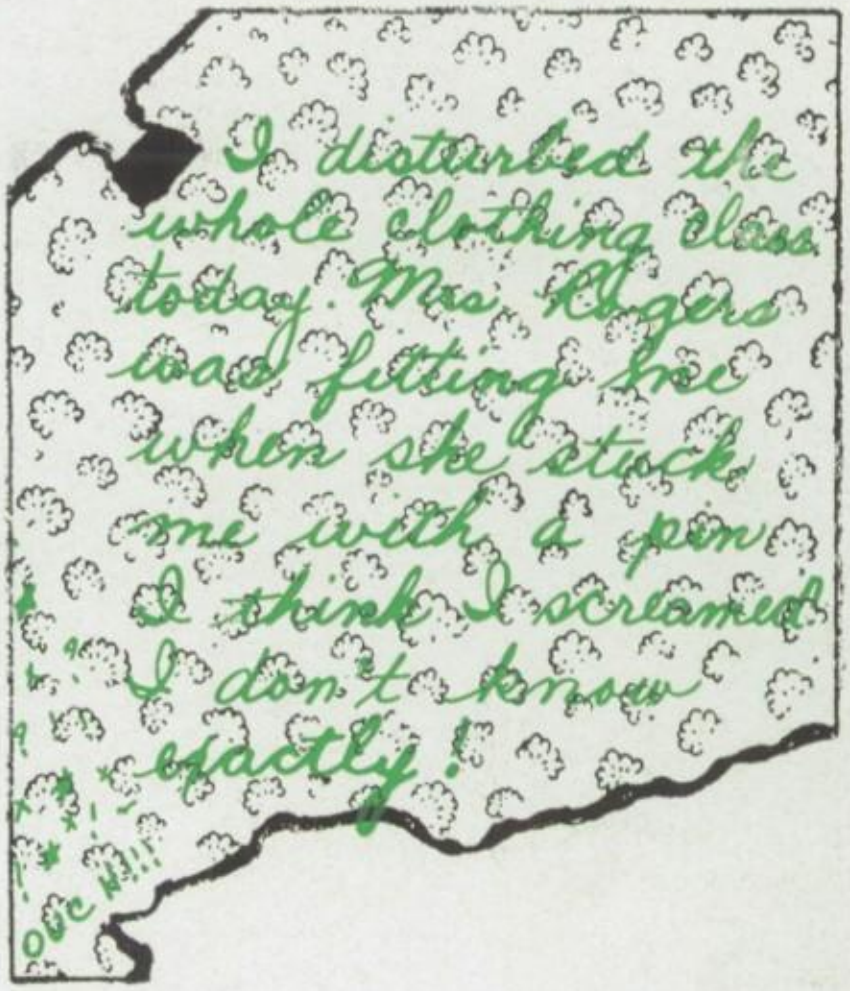
A perfect fit! Well, it will be when completed. That is one of the main problems for Clothing students. Of course, they work on many other problems, displaying their finished projects in the annual Fashion Show.



I disturbed the whole clothing class today. Mrs. Rogers was fitting me when she stuck me with a pin I think I screamed I don't know exactly!

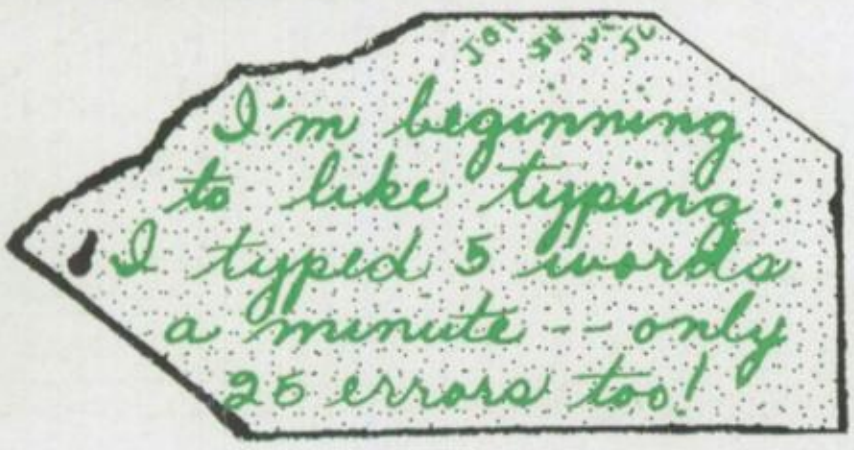
Defense work came into East High this year, especially for the Shop boys. These classes were assigned work on model airplanes. These planes were built according to specifications, and were used in defense training.

Here are a few of the boys setting type in the Print Shop where many East High programs, papers, tickets, and other materials are printed. The Auroran also is rolled off the presses in this class.

Loud are the groans from beginning typists when errors creep into the last line on the page. Soon, however, they progress in speed and accuracy and look forward to advanced work in the Commercial Department.

"The Road to War" was presented by the Economics classes, showing by charts, maps, scenes of international conferences, and a radio sketch just how the present war developed.



The recording machine is of use not only in the Speech Classes but also in the Journalism Department. Here the instructor gains firsthand information preparatory to making assignments for a radio broadcast.

"Now if you'll just look at the camera for a moment and hold perfectly still—thank you, that's all! What? Sure, I took the picture," and with puzzled looks the Freshmen go back to their sections.

Food—good food, of course—draws people; and that's why the cafeteria is crowded every lunch hour. The girls help in preparing and serving food. Many students as well as several faculty members lunch here every noon.

This scene shows a little more of the "Road to War" program given in convo and mentioned on the opposite page.

The Whole Town's Talking

"The Whole Town's Talking," a farce written by Anita Loos and John Emerson, was presented as the Senior Class Play.

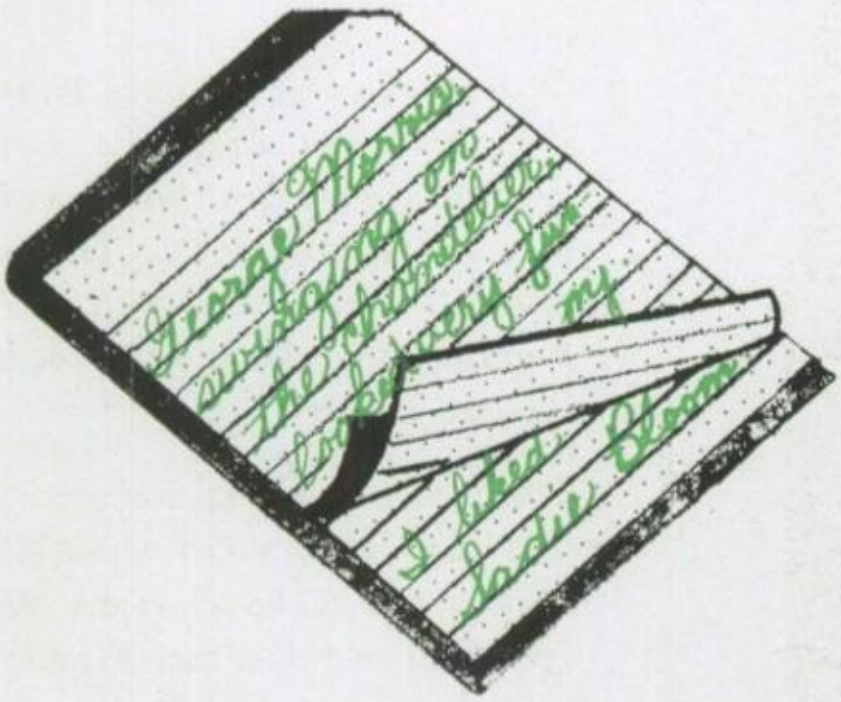
The whole town of Sandusky, Ohio, was talking about the trials and tribulations of Chester Binney (George Morris) in his wooing of his boss' daughter, Ethel Simmons (Joan Bricker).

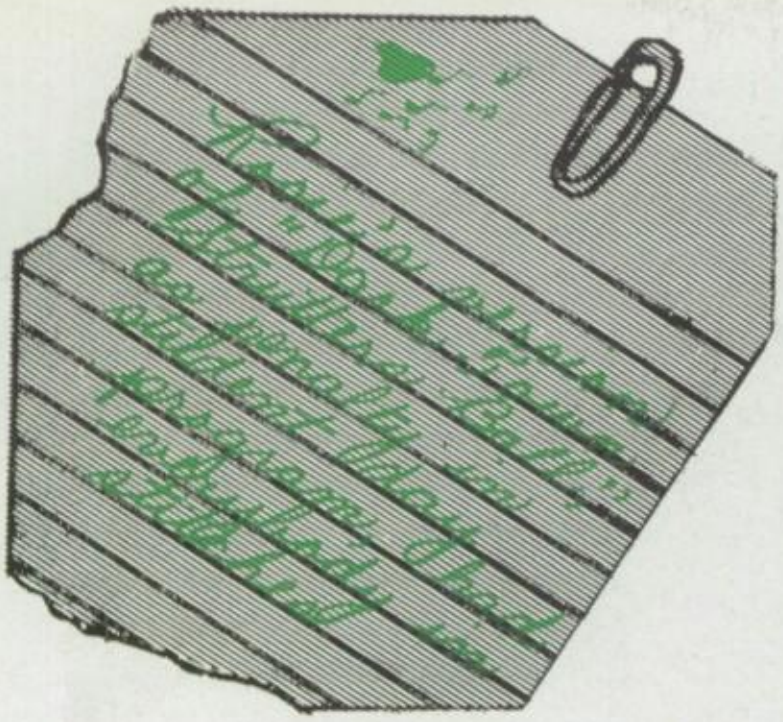
Mr. Simmons (Fred Moulton) the boss, to further the real love affair between Chester and Ethel fakes a romance between Chester and Letty Lythe (Mary Jane Kraus) a glamorous movie queen, by forging her signature and a loving message on her photograph. Mrs. Simmons (Lois Tarble) however, opposes the match between Binney and Ethel, preferring Roger Shields (Franklin Worland) of Chicago and Paris, who is paying attention to Ethel. Helping spread the gossip about the town are Lila Wilson (Joanne Muntz) and Sally Otis (Marian De Wolf).

Complications arise when Letty arrives in Sandusky for a personal appearance. Accompanying her is her ex-prizefighter fiance, Donald Swift (Walter Lee). Shields discovers the deception and schemes to reveal the hoax.

Sadie Bloom (Betty Zidell) Mr. Simmons' dancing teacher, arrives demanding a handbag which Mr. Simmons has, but she is easily disposed of. The others are more of a problem.

The climax is reached when Binney and Swift fight in the dark. Binney is discovered on the chandelier, while Shields and Swift knock each other out. Ethel, in her fear for Chester's safety, discovers her love for him, and the curtain closes upon their reconciliation.





Observance of the annual Student Day was made on April 27, with members of the student body serving as teachers in the morning classes. The afternoon was devoted to a satire play, depicting the effects of a dictatorship on our country.

Selected by the students to govern the school on this day were Bill Salisbury, Dean of Boys; Frank Worland, Principal; and Florence Fischer, Dean of Girls.

Anne of Green Gables

"Anne of Green Gables" was presented by the Junior Class on December 5 and 6 to a capacity audience in the East High auditorium. The title role of Anne was portrayed by Betty Bank. Carroll Miller and Ethel Gustafson were cast as Matthew and Marilla Cuthbert, who adopted Anne.

The very fact that Anne turned out to be a girl when Marilla wanted a boy, complicated matters enough, but Anne's vivid imagination and very frank spirit led her into many unhappy moments. Her best friend, Diana Barry, played by Charlene Thomas, sympathized with her, and of course, Matthew was always on her side. After winning Marilla's love, Anne's remaining relative turned up to claim her. Anne, however, had grown to love her two benefactors and preferred to stay with them. Ira Mills (Richard Setz), who was the relative, was also an old friend of Marilla's so the two of them got together after many years of separation and Anne remained in her happy home. Anne found happiness with Gilbert Blythe (Richard Remiyac) after she found that the "pesty" little boy had turned out to be a man for whom she had much admiration.

Boys' Club

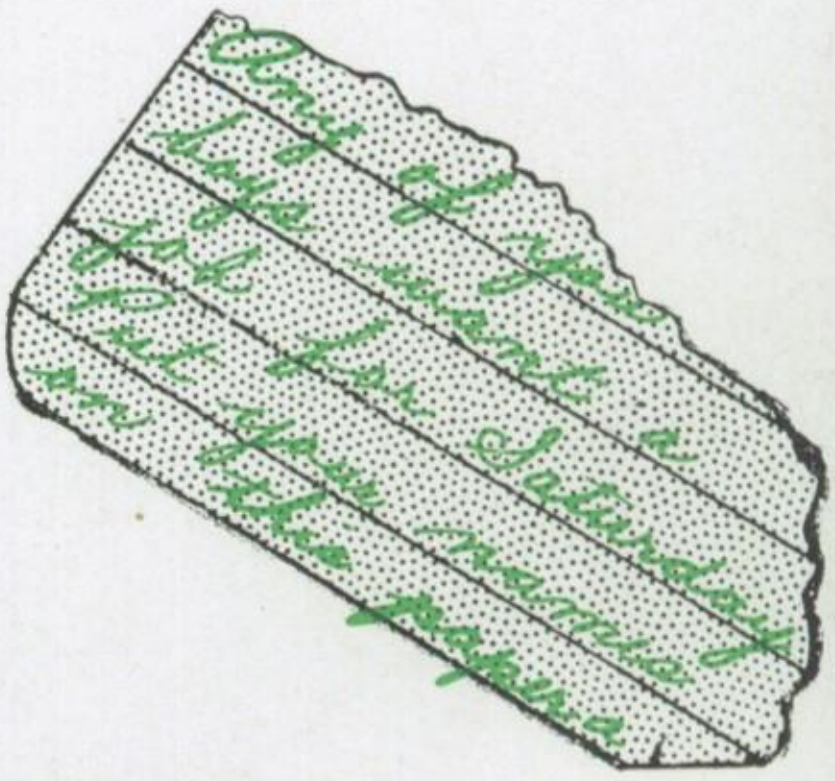
The semi-annual party for freshmen had plenty of entertainment. Here we have Foster Webster and Tom Jones engaged in an amusing round of fisticuffs. Movies and refreshments also furnished amusement at this party.

Christmas spirit was enjoyed thoroughly in the halls of East High. Many of the decorations were put up by the Boys' Club. The Minstrel and Magazine Drive were other projects in which the boys took part.



Girls' Club

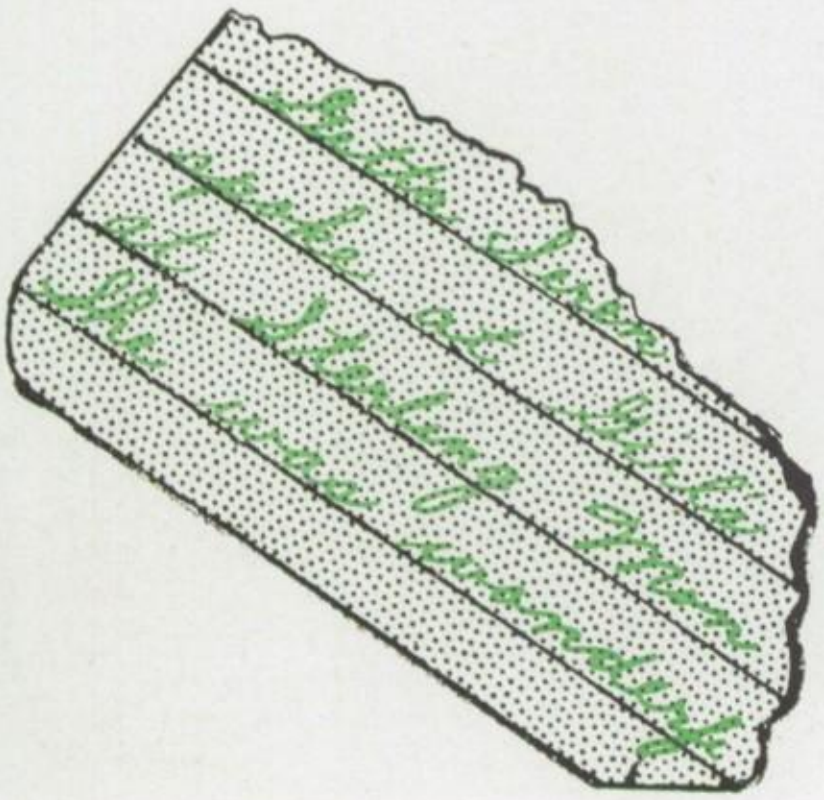
DOROTHY INGLE
Vice-President

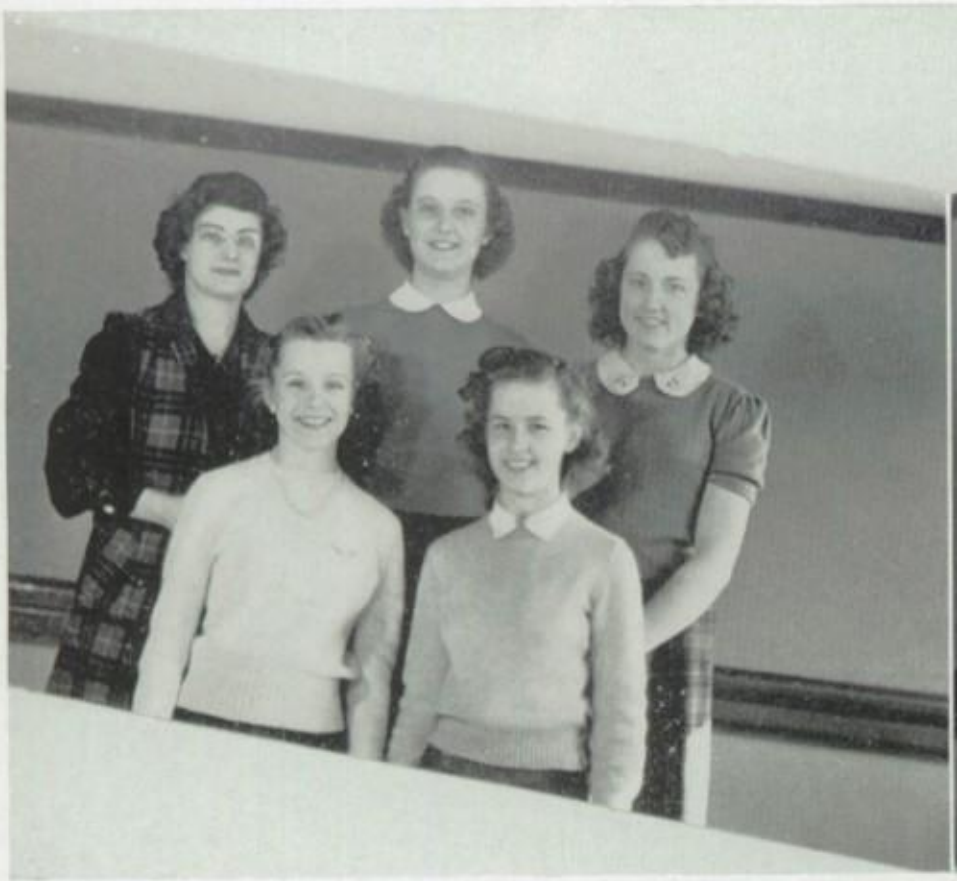
BETTY LOU HUNTLEY
Secretary

FLORENCE FISCHER
President

Coal man, athletic girl, and bedtime beauty—all paraded the halls as part of initiation of new officers. The three grinning victims are Eloise Hammer, Marilyn Grisch, and Pat Cadwell. Initiation was completed at the Freshman Party.

One of the many activities of Girls' Club is the annual Christmas party for needy children. The Beacon-News Empty Stocking Fund, along with the work of firemen in repairing donated toys, makes this party possible every year.





Speculum

There are many branches of work to be done in putting out a completed Speculum. The pictures of you, the student, must be planned; costs and materials carefully considered; identifications and explanations of what you are doing in different photographs must be written; copy must be made presentable to the printer; and everything proofed for errors.

The editors are responsible for the accomplishment of all these tasks. They are (seated) Mildred Bailey, photography; Betty Youngman, literary; Carol Westphal, managing; (standing) Marilyn Doebert, manuscript; and Dorothy Hills, business.

After all copy has been written the manuscript department types it for the printer. The staff is, back row, Dorothy Haag; Marilyn Doebert, manuscript editor; Marian Darr; front row, Klaziena Groot; Marjorie Larsen.

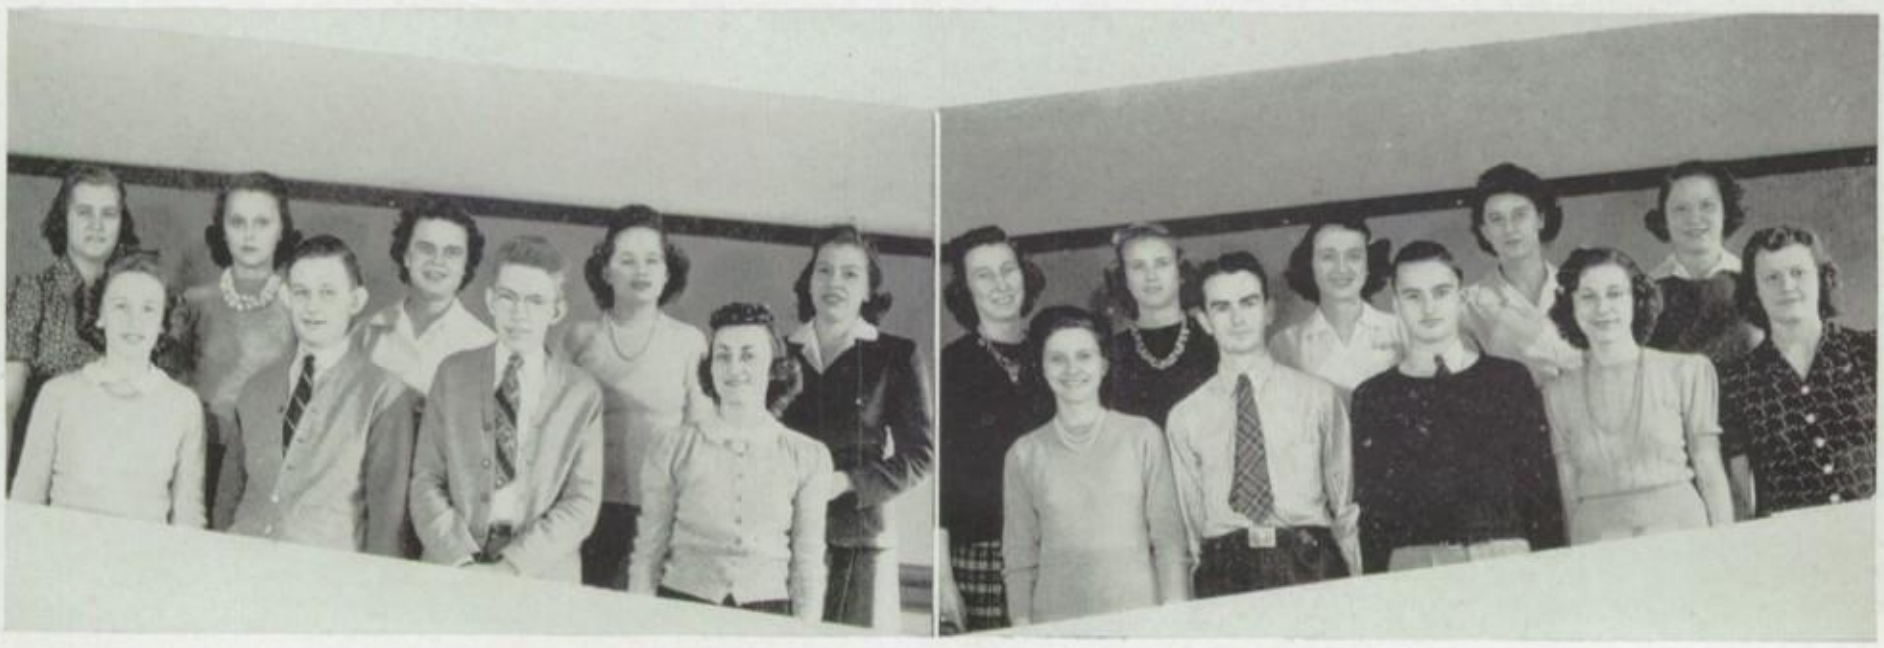
The patrons of the Speculum gave money to help make the book possible — after some of these seniors applied a bit of selling strategy here and there. These people are Speculum Boosters because they brought in fifteen dollars or more within a limited time. The boosters are, back row, Lou Ann Mihr, Dorothy Hills, Marguerite Pauls, Marilyn Doebert, Ruth Shoger; front row, Wanda Anderson, Florence Pillatsch, Ward Thompson, High Salesman; Robert Lynam, Iris Butke, Mildred Bailey. Not in picture, Norma Kling and Margaret Feldott.



Auroran

East High participates in many sports activities. To cover these activities, the Auroran furnishes a sports staff consisting of R. O'Neil; D. Weiss; B. Clark; R. Bachert, sports editor; and B. Salisbury.

Errors of all sorts are found by the copyreader. Spelling, punctuation, grammar — all are checked. The copyreaders are, standing, J. Zickert, F. Miller, B. L. Huntley; seated, L. Tarble, C. Westphal, C. Pauly, M. Bailey.

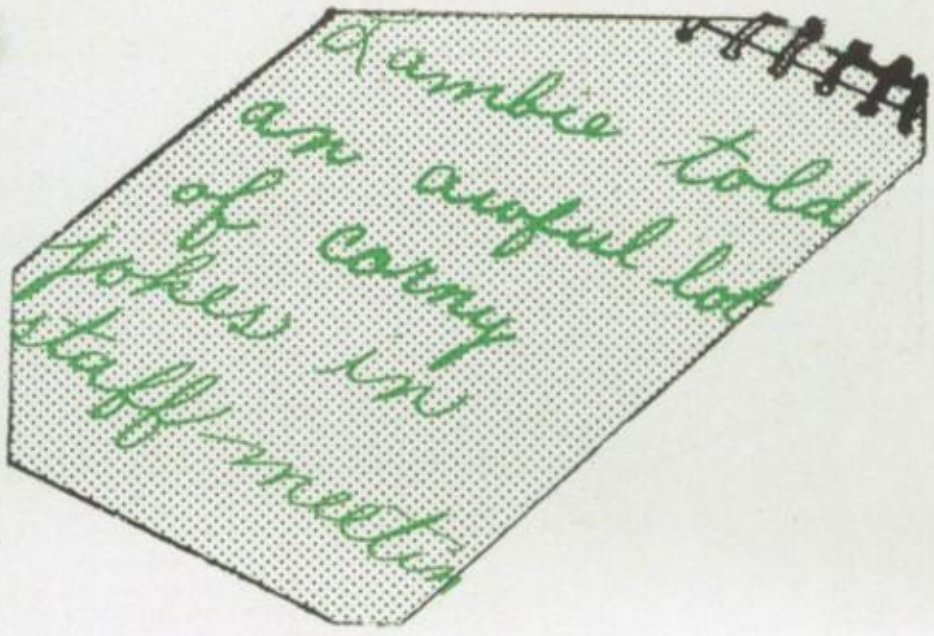
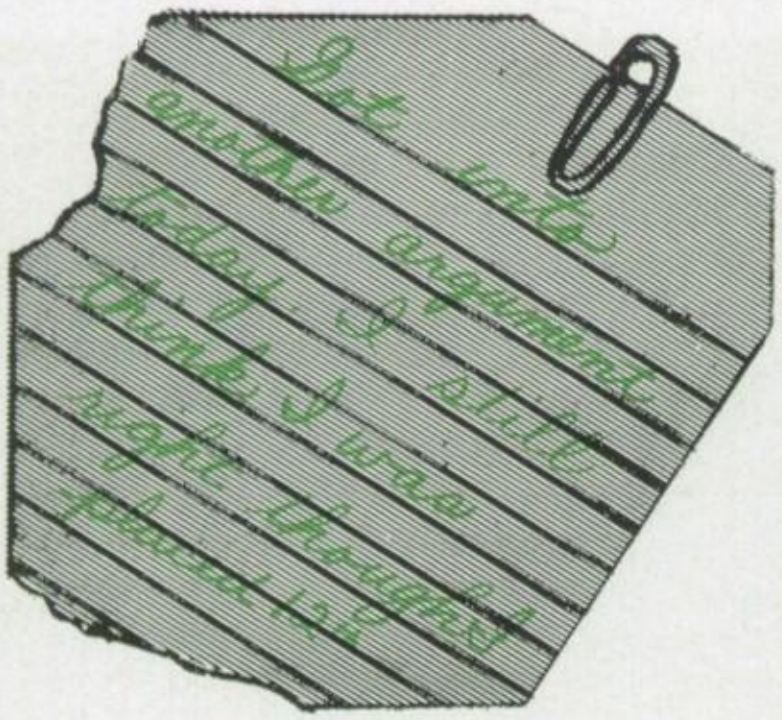
Auroran

The annual Big Eight Press Conference was held at East High this year. The conference consists of schools of this area that meet to discuss their papers and yearbooks. Round tables, a general session, and a banquet, with speeches by professional men comprise the program. Schools participating are East Rockford, West Rockford, Joliet, Elgin, Freeport, La Salle-Peru, West High, and East High.

Clifford Johnson of N.B.C. was the morning speaker at the conference this year. He was interviewed by George Morris of East High and Jack Deindorfer of West High. Paul Nelson, editor of "Scholastic Editor," was the afternoon speaker. Richard Hughes, Auroran editor, listens attentively to Mr. Nelson's advice to the newspapermen of tomorrow.

When stories have been copyread they are not ready to be put on the press. The typists must type the copy to insure legibility. Here Bob Kelly, Auroran photographer, snaps typists C. Thomas, J. Klein, M. Beisle, B. Glower.





Debate

Although slightly confused by a change of coaches during the initial week of its season, this year's debate team under the guidance of Miss Dorothy Youngblood placed second in the Big Eight Conference.

Practice debates and tournaments were held at Elgin, DeKalb, Augustana College, Sandwich, and East Aurora.

Frank Worland placed first in the Big Eight Original Oratory Tournament, first in district and sectional contests, and fifth in the state finals.

Also pictured are the timekeepers who assisted in one of the meets, and the coach Miss Youngblood, with a debater.

Drama

Replacing the traditional Christmas pageant, the Drama Class, under the direction of Miss Bredlow, this year presented Dickens' "Christmas Carol." Pictured is Ebenezer Scrooge, horrified to see his own tombstone. This program was one of the many projects undertaken by the class this year.

Another presentation of the class was the colorful "Fiesta Panamericana" depicting songs, dances and costumes of our South American neighbors. Cooperating with the Drama Class in the "Fiesta" were the Band, under the direction of Mr. Rosenbarger, and the Spanish Department.

Members of the class assist with make-up for the Minstrel, Variety Show, and other school activities.

Others are in charge of lighting and stage craft, and still others supervise the costume wardrobe.

Music Festival

On Monday, April 27, East High participated with ten other schools in the Fox Valley Music Festival. The performance took place at West High.

Vocal and instrumental talent was represented. All rehearsals for the festival were held on Sunday and Monday afternoons. This was the fourteenth annual festival. A total of 750 students took part—150 in the orchestra and 600 in the chorus.

The guest conductor for the orchestra was Frederick Toenniges, a well-known midwestern conductor.

The chorus was conducted by Olaf C. Christiansen, of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

Language Clubs

German Club — standing, Jack Levedahl; Bill Hauser, president; seated, Leland Westphal; Betty Holdorf, vice-president; Annette Abel, secretary.

Spanish Club—Marilyn Grisch; Norma Kling, secretary; Barbara Cowherd, president.

Junior Delphi

Impromptu speeches given by members is the usual program of Junior Delphi. Members also participate in the bi-annual Mock Trial. Mr. T. L. Carlson is the club's adviser. The officers are, back row, Charlotte Kraus, secretary; Pat Anning, treasurer; Lois Jaki, president; Helen Strotz, vice-president. Front row, Sue Coble, president; Robert Shapiro, sgt.-at-arms; Edith Levedahl, vice-president. Not in picture, Max Moulton, treasurer.

Senior Delphi

Junior Girl Reserves

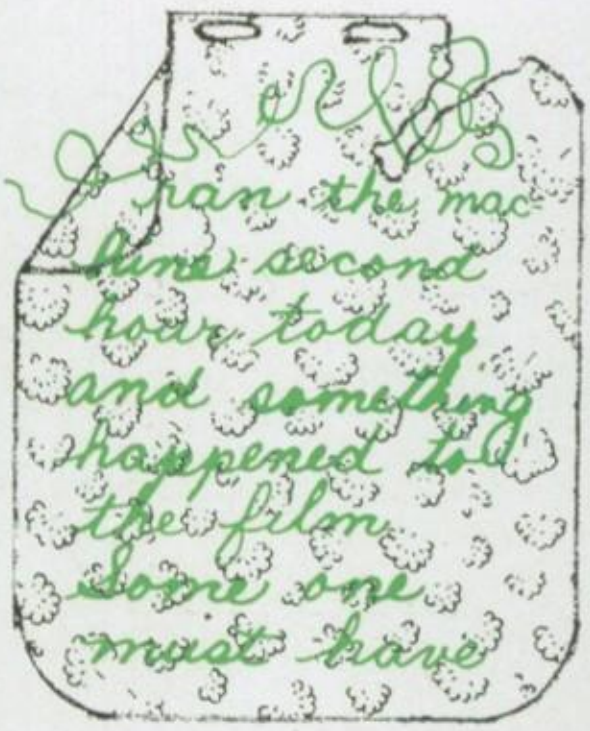
Conferences, formals, dances, teas, parties —all are part of the Junior Girl Reserve program for the year. The officers are, seated, Betty Becker, program chairman; Helen Strotz, reporter; Lois Jaki, vice-president; Marion Keeley, president; standing, Hazel Bourelle, treasurer; Edith Levedahl, music chairman; Joyce Bartlett, social chairman; Effie Chioles, secretary; Phyllis Steinkamp, program chairman.

Senior Girl Reserves

The Senior Girl Reserves combine many of their activities with the Junior organization. The officers are Kathryn Fleming, music chairman; Frances Miller, reporter; Florence Pillatsch, president; Lily Tabor, treasurer; Carol Westphal, social chairman; Marian De Wolf, secretary; Mary Jane Kraus, program chairman.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y dance is one of the biggest Hi-Y events of the year. The boys worked on many other projects. The officers are Bill Eby, president of junior branch; Forrest Michael, president of senior branch; Karl Reuland, senior secretary-treasurer; Howard Frederick, senior vice-president.

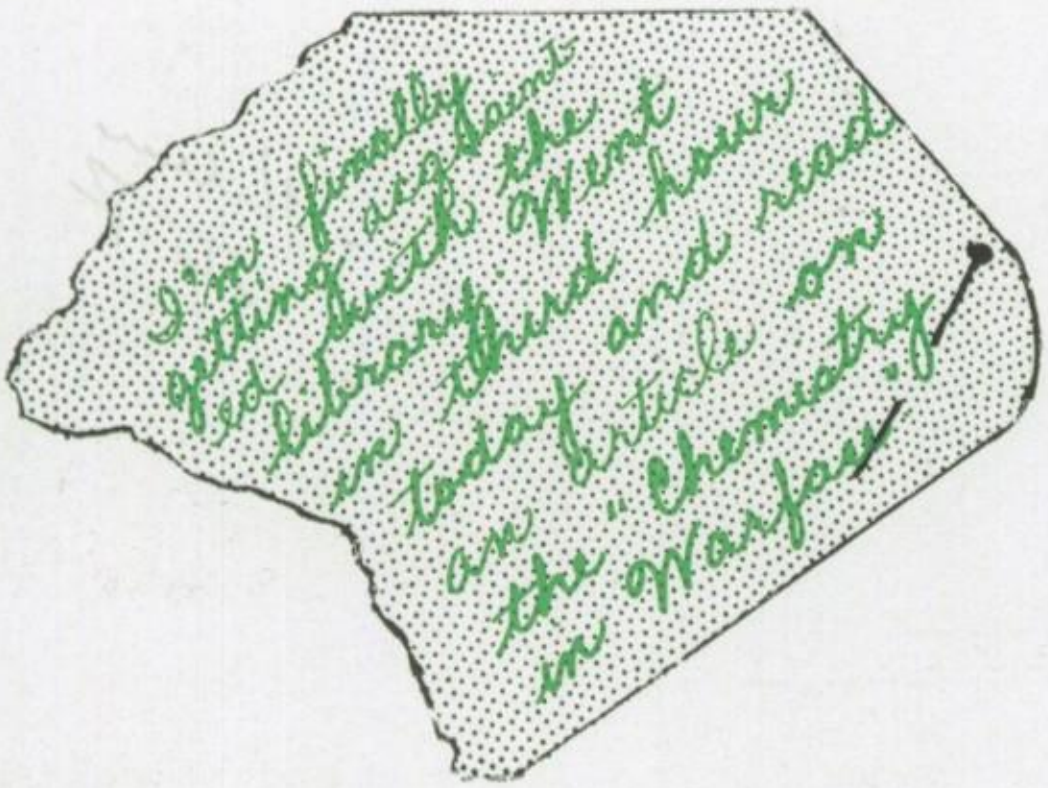


Projector Club

"Let 'em roll" is probably a fitting motto for the Projector Club. The numerous movies seen at East High during the year are made possible through the work of these boys under the guidance of Mr. Stutz. The principles of the machine are made familiar to the boys. They also learn how to care for the machine and film. Social science, general science, and language classes require most of the films, but many are seen by all of the students. In the club are, back row, R. Schaub, R. Mietz, B. Wilkening, E. DuSell, S. Hamper, P. Weston; front row, R. Steckel, B. Sullivan, Mascot, S. Guth, T. Maudsley, M. Cornwall.

Rifle Club

To teach correct use and handling of rifles, to make good marksmen, and to teach the marksman's code is the object of the Rifle Club. The club meets every Wednesday. In its earlier stages the group participated in many meets. The fellows also put in some shots at the North Aurora outdoor rifle range. Regular practicing is done in the school attic. Mr. G. M. Runninger has acted as the adviser for the club. The members are, standing, B. Meyer; J. Levedahl, president; R. Rosenbarger; seated, K. Lasson; B. Heiman; R. Lynam, secretary. Towards the end of the year the club was dissolved.



Library Science

If you don't get that book in on time, you'll hear about it from the Library Science class whose members learn to keep a check on all library procedure. Here F. McWilliams, M. Engler, J. Bales, I. Bere, B. Grady, J. Pearson, E. Fiene, and E. Cross represent the club whose membership is over fifty.

Science Club

The Science Club furthers the interests of the science students. Pointing out and demonstrating the various scientific fundamentals are M. Larsen, secretary and treasurer; B. Doane; T. Poss; B. Sullivan; W. Olson, president; and B. Hunter.

Commercial Club

All students taking a commercial course at East High may become members of the Commercial Club. Its programs aim to acquaint the students with various types of work in the business field.

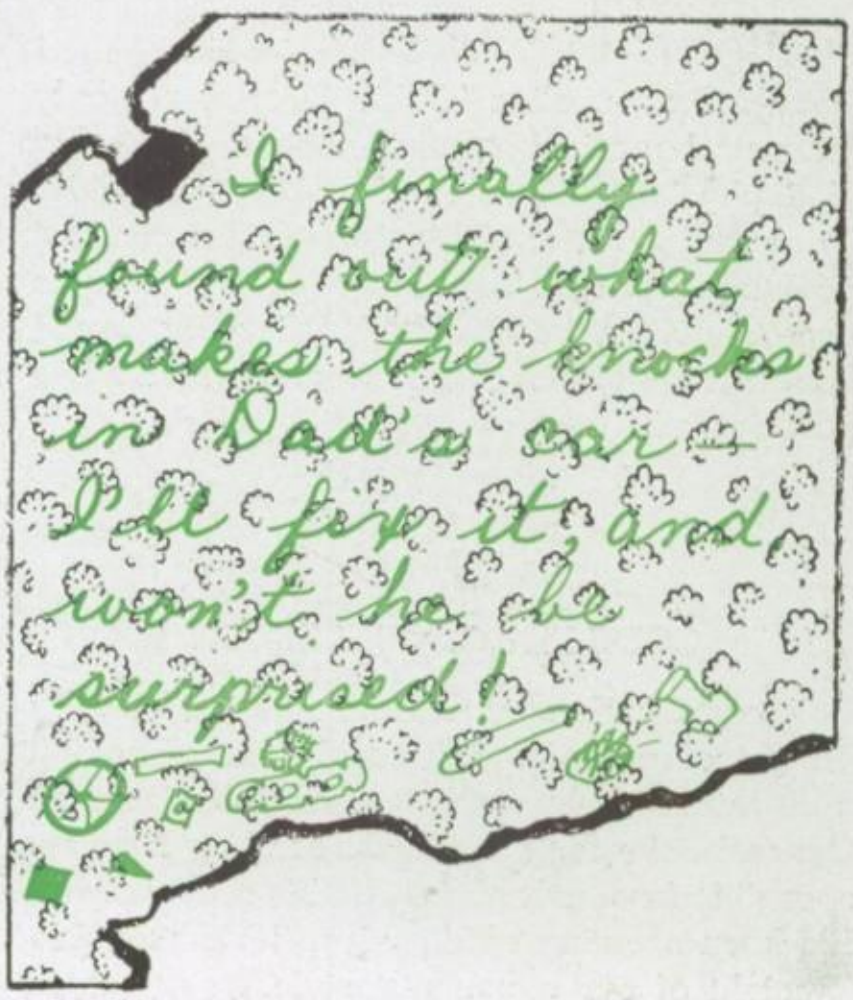
Motor Club

When something goes wrong with the automobile, the Motor Club students try to find the cause. Laws of driving are discussed in the class along with the principles and functions of the automobile. Studying this car are L. Moen, vice-president; B. Rowcliffe, secretary; M. Settles, president; M. Pauls, secretary.



R. E. DAVIS

AARON ALBRIGHT

Aaron Albright, instructor of Biology and General Science, is the man responsible for furnishing much of Coach Thompson's Varsity Football material, for he is coach of Freshman-Sophomore Football. He not only knows his "bugs," but he also knows a lot about football, as any Freshman-Sophomore player will testify.

DONALD BROWN

Donald Brown, alias "Debit" Brown, not only instructs boys in becoming mental giants but also physical giants, for Mr. Brown, besides being an instructor of Algebra, Arithmetic, and Bookkeeping, also coaches wrestling. Due to expert tutoring the East High Wrestling Squad has done well in all of the meets in which it has participated.

COLEMAN G. GUNDERSON

Coleman Gunderson, affectionately called "Big Jim" by almost everyone, coaches both Football and Intra-Murals, and teaches Physics and General Science. Mr. Gunderson has been responsible for much of East High's grid success. His keen scouting ability gives us a valuable foresight of our opponents' style.

ROY E. DAVIS

Mr. Davis, East High's genial Director of Athletics, is also an instructor of Biology. Although most persons might not be well acquainted with them, Mr. Davis' duties as Athletic Director are just as important as those of the coaches. Being Athletic Director is a challenge to anyone's ability, a challenge which Mr. Davis has accepted and ably performed for many years.

A. ALBRIGHT

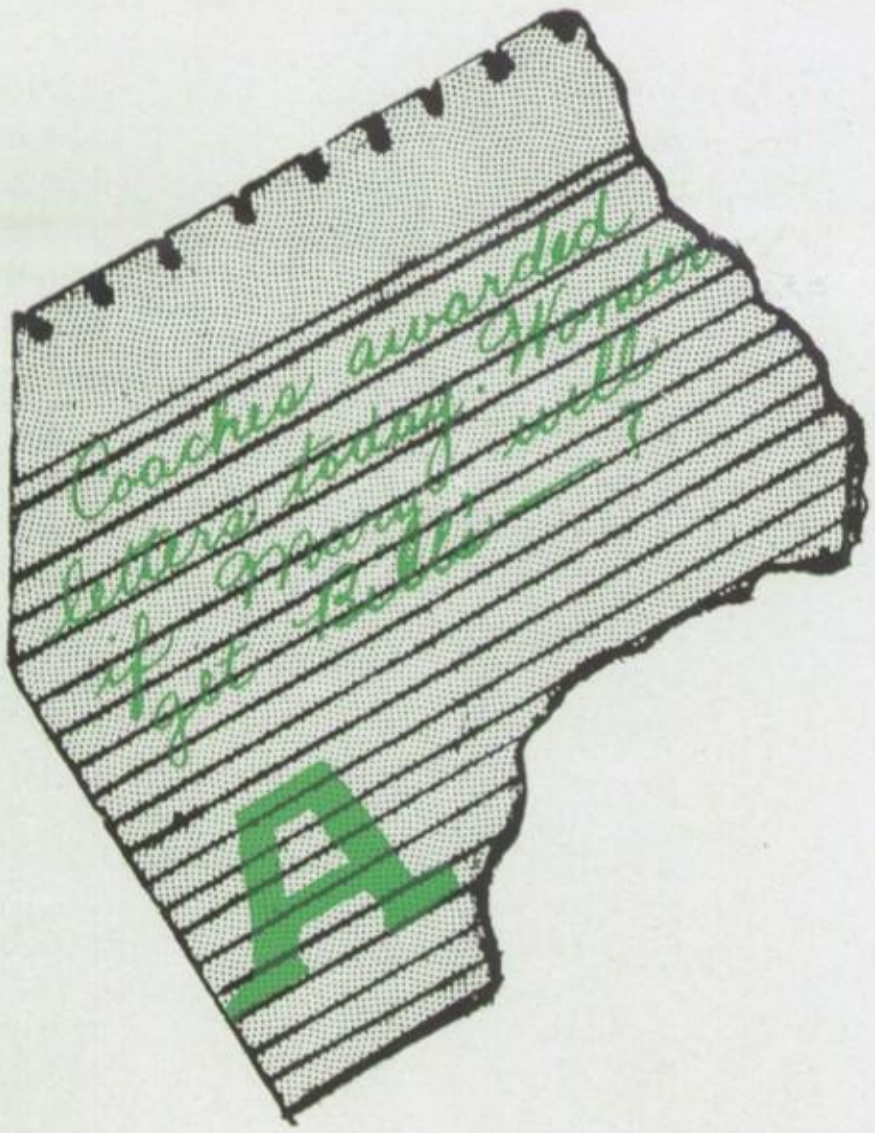
D. BROWN

C. MAY

C. GUNDERSON

CECIL R. MAY

Mr. May, instructor in Industrial Geography and Introduction to Business, is also Varsity Basketball coach. Mr. May is well-known for his ability to teach boys how to play basketball scientifically. Although he has met with a little misfortune in the won-and-lost department, it will be a different story when the boys really learn his system thoroughly.



JOE MAZE

Besides teaching World History, "Joe" also coaches Football, Basketball, and Track. Mr. Maze is well-known to both his classes and players for his serious but worthwhile lectures. Don't get the idea that he's dull, because he isn't; his sincerity is exceeded only by his geniality.

RODGER E. STUTZ

Mr. Stutz, Chemistry instructor and also Football and Golf coach, is one of the best-liked teachers in school (especially by the girls). Mr. Stutz, sometimes called the "Mastermind" or the "Rajah" has won many friends through his pleasing personality.

J. MAZE

R. STUTZ

GLEN THOMPSON

Mr. Thompson, popularly known as "Tommy," is coach of Varsity Football and Track and is also instructor in Physical Education. "Tommy" has an enviable record as a grid mentor, a record that any coach would be proud to possess. He is very popular among the boys because he is always telling jokes.

G. THOMPSON

T. WIEDENBECK

THEODORE WIEDENBECK

Mr. Wiedenbeck, known to many of his friends as "Teddy," was coach of both Basketball and Tennis, and also instructor in Arithmetic. Recently, Mr. Wiedenbeck has answered his country's call and is now in Uncle Sam's Navy helping to train the sailor lads.

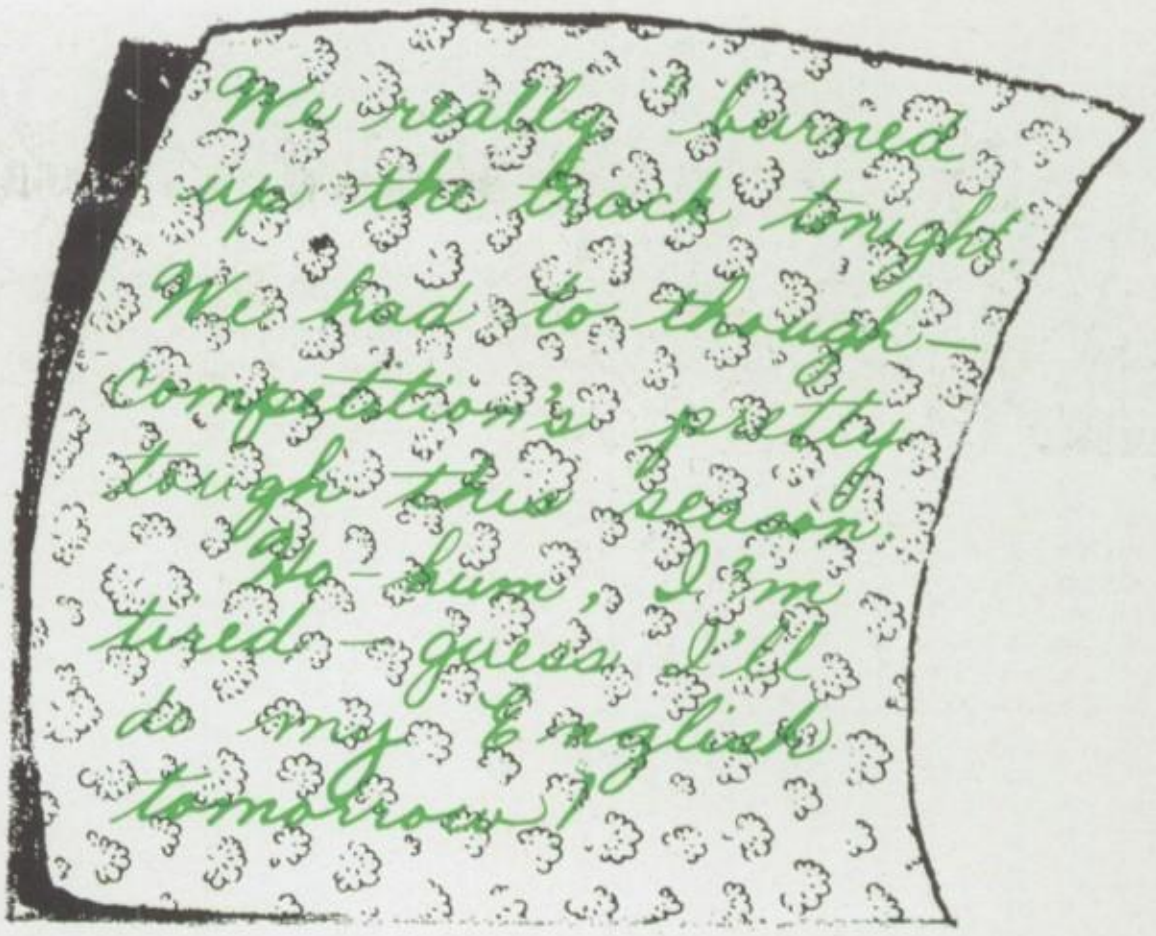
Track

It's Don Patterson and "Chuck" Richardson running a close one in the 60 yard dash at an indoor track meet held with West High School!

Ray Mietz is crossing that white line to place first in the half mile dash. The event took place in a meet with Wheaton.

Another speedy fellow on East's team is Jack Gamet. Jack is pictured first-placing the mile stretch which was another of the contest at Wheaton.

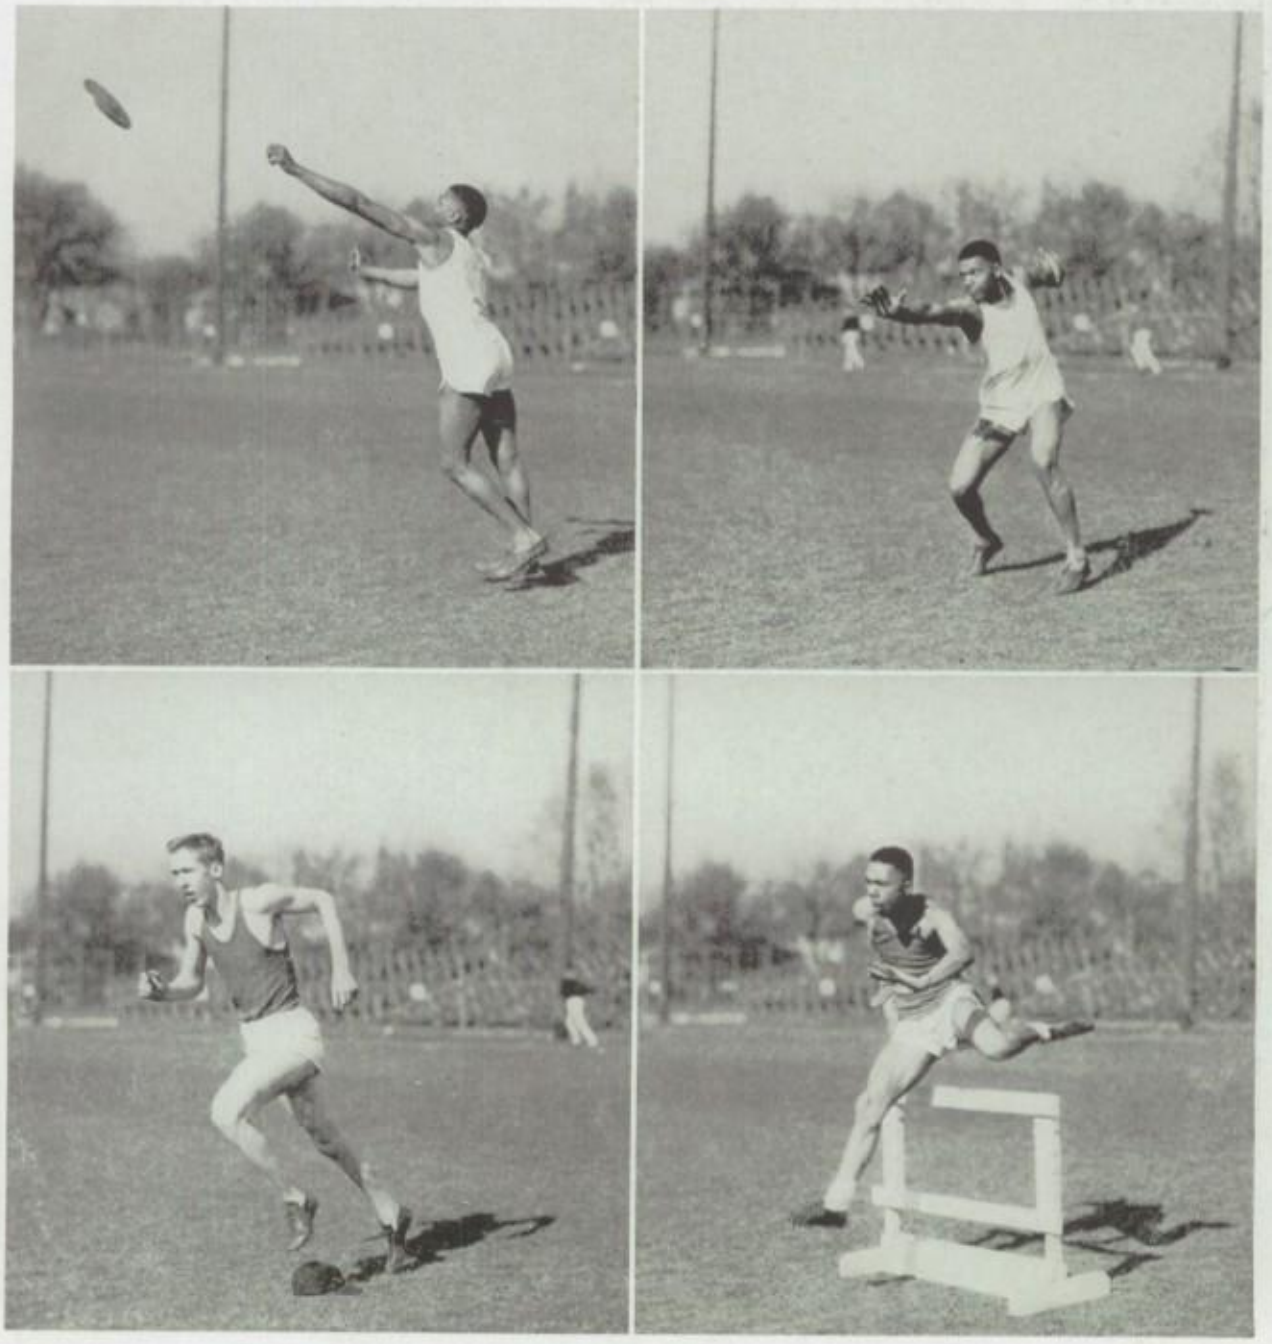


Track

The arm goes back and muscles flex when Paul Patterson prepares to give that discus a "mighty heave!"—and there it goes to its destination.

Ground was fast in disappearing when this picture was snapped. The fleet pacer is Birney Dibble getting in some practice at the athletic field.

Up and over! No, this isn't a steeplechase. Junior Cowherd puts in practice on making a speedy clearance of the hurdles.



Wrestling

Conference tournament champions were Don Larson, 95 pounds; Joe Lunneen, 105 pounds; Don Albert, 125 pounds; Kenneth Swanson, 135 pounds; Bob Zieche, 165 pounds; second places, Leonard Moen, 155 pounds; Charles Cousland, heavyweight.
